You'll be excited to see them, too

I'm hastily gearing up to jet to Las Vegas, along with many of you (how many pairs of shoes are you bringing?), all the while making a mental checklist of everyone and everything I need to see while I'm there. My annual residency at the Mandalay Bay Resort and Casino isn't nearly long enough to take in everything I'd like to see, so it's important to make lists. On one of those lists: the jewels considered immediate favorites that look so good in photos, I can only imagine how great they are in person. I can't wait to see them, witness the sparkle, try them on, post to Instagram, repeat. Make sure to pick out your favorites, too, and I'll meet you on the show floor!
